Good for the Child.

The ailments of childhood need careful attention and, like treatment. Some people think "anything is good enough for a child, and there isn't much the matter with it anyhow." But judicious mothers know better, and do as Mrs. H. W. Perry, of Richmond Va., does. She says: "I take Brown's Iron Bitters and give it to my children with the most satisfactory results." Sold everywhere.

EL Roundabout.

It is with a sad heart that I hasten to inform you of the death of my wife, Polly Yocum. Yes, your dear aunt is no more. Her lunacy again became denegated about the time she became correspondent for the press.

Have you heard anything from the Phelps brothers? Poor boys. Now that I'm bereaved in the loss of Polly would you be kind enough to hunt up poor David Talmage Phelps or George Boggs Phelps and tell them to come home and live with their uncle Luke. The last news was that Dupont had them in his paper mill chewing rags to make paper. From bereaved uncle, ZEEKE YOCUM.

Five saloons were closed in Chattanooga last week. A dispatch to the Nashville American attributes the fact to hard times. The hard times that stimulate economy to this significantly new direction will not be an unmixed calamity. Nashville American.

Rev. C. H. Spencer writes the Voice that he is a total abstainer, advocates total abstinence, and rejoices in wearing the blue ribbon. This statement was brought out by a circulated report that Mr. Spurgeon occasionally indulged in a glass of wine.

Aoted like a Charm.

My little daughter all her life has been, in delicate health. Her blood seemed to be impoverished. She has taken various preparations of Iron, cod-liver oil, and tonics of many kinds, which were prescribed by the best physicians, and while she was benefited, yet it was only temporary. A member of my congregation, who had tried it, recommended S. S. S. For about a year she has had an indolent but stubborn sore behind her ears. After she had taken Swin's Specific for a short time the sores grew worse and began to discharge. This I regarded as favorable. In a very short time her ears grew better, and to day is entirely well. Her appetite is splendid and regular. She is full of life and cheerfulness. The change is evident to the most casual observer. I ascribe it all, under the blessing of God, to SWIN'S Specific. In view of what it has done for me and mine, I can most confidently and sincerely recommend it to all who need such a remedy. Let the suffering give it a fair trial, and it will bring hope, health and happiness into every home.

Filled Rev. R. H. Kinnard's pulpit on last Sunday night. The sermon was a remarkably earnest and eloquent presentation of the truth, and the whole congregation were greatly pleased with the doctor and his sermon, and unite with us in the hope that this good man may come to see them often.

Doctor Lewis' reputation as a preacher always secures him a good congregation.—Midway Clipper.

"Crossed Man in Alabama."

"De crossed man in Alabama lives dar," said the driver as we approached a wayside home, near Selma, Ala., to ask accommodations for the night. At supper, and after it, "mine host" serowled at every one, found fault with every thing earthly, and I was wondering if he would not growl if the heavenly hail didn't fit him, when incidental mention being made of the corner of 1882, he said: "I didn't like its form, its tail should have been fan shaped."

But, next morning, he appeared half-oxfaced at our offering to pay for his hospitality! My companion, however, made him accept as a present a sample from his case of goods. Six weeks later, I drew up at the same house. The planter stepped lightly from the porch, and greeted me cordially. I could scarcely believe that this clear complexion, bright-eyed, animated fellow, and the morose being of a few weeks back, were the same. He inquired after my companion of the former visit and regretted that he was not with me. "Yes," said his wife, "we are both much indebted to him." "How?" I asked, in surprise. "For this wonderful change in my husband. Your friend, when leaving, handed him a bottle of Warner's safe cure. He took it, and two other bottles, and now—" "And now?" he broke in. "from an ill-feeling, growling old bear, I am healthy and so cheerful my wife declares she has fallen in love with me again!"

It has made over again a thousand love matches, and keeps sweet the tempers of the family circle every where.—Copyright. Sent by permission of American Rural Home. Aug. 23d

Antioch

Still dry but not so hot; stock water scarce.

Mr. Henry Spaulding's child is improving slowly.

Older making is next in order; then comes sonship.

Preaching at Antioch to-morrow week by Eld. J. K. P. South.

We are sorry to hear that the sweet-potato crop is a failure in this neighborhood this year.

A rain is now needed to save the grass and turnips, the other crops being past redemption.

Mrs. Chase Truel has been very sick, and at one time was in a very critical condition, but is now improving.

There was music, sweet music, in the air last Sunday night. Some of our young lady friends were singing at Mr. Owens'.

Mr. Richard Kendall and family, of Winchester, have been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity. They returned home last Monday.

Way do not the trustees of the common schools enforce the law in regard to text books. It is their sworn duty to do so and they certainly do not intend to perjure themselves. They should look into the matter.

There was a picnic given at Quarry Springs last Saturday where all seemed to enjoy themselves. We noticed several of Frankfort's belles in the crowd. We hear there will be another one given at the same place next Saturday.

The teachers of the county should remember that next Saturday is the time set for the meeting of the County Association, and we hope that all the teachers and trustees of the county will make it their business to be present. All friends of education are cordially invited.

Bridgeport.

The turnip prospect is gloomy.

Cabbage in this vicinity is almost a failure.

The apple and pear yield is very good.

Owing to the scarcity of trees the peach crop is light.

The farmers have commenced cutting their tobacco.

Tonatoes have been more scarce this season than usual.

A literary society will be organized in this town early in the fall.

C. H. Parent, who has been quite sick recently, is able to be out again.

The contractors have about finished the new school house at this place.

Mrs. Georgiana Hawkins is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. S. Sargent.

The Irish potato crop, in consequence of the dry season, will be rather light.

Mr. J. W. Daniel is lying quite sick at his home, Mr. Jos. Parent's, near this place.

Several ladies and gentlemen, of this vicinity, attended the fair at Shelbyville last week.

Mr. Thos. Freeman, who has been quite sick for some weeks, still remains in a precarious condition.

That business boom we predicted for our vicinity some time since has arrived.

The wheat has about all been threshed out. The yield is about one third of a crop.

A protracted meeting, conducted by Eld. Homer Wilson, is in progress at the Bridgeport Christian Church.

Billy Pierce has in course of erection a house which he proposes to occupy as soon as completed.

Miss Bettie McWilliams has returned home from a visit to friends in Shelby county.

Miss Josie Robinson, of Lagrange, is spending some time in this section, the guest of Miss Bettie Wilson.

Messrs. Kendrie and Jas. Wade made a trip to Louisville the first of the week.

Oscar Roberts has removed his business—blacksmithing—from this place to Frankfort.

Rev. A. C. Caperton, editor Western Recorder, spent a night in our town last week, the guest of Mr. J. W. Jenkins.

Rev. B. F. Hughes will preach at Frankfort Church next Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m., and on Sunday at 11 a. m., Sept. 12 and 13.

Mrs. Clara Garnett, son and daughter, of Owen county, are visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Thos. Farmer, in the Farmdale vicinity.

Charlie Jenkins and wife were at Bagdad last Saturday and Sunday, the guests of Mr. D. D. Vannatta and family.

Mr. F. M. Scofield, who was disabled for several days recently by a strain of his back, is able to be out again.

Miss Anne Crockett, of Louisville, has returned home from a visit to relatives in this vicinity, accompanied by her cousin, Daisy Parent.

Born—August 25, 1885, to Oscar Roberts and wife, a son. Also August 29, 1885, to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wade a son—Horatio Granville.

In order that our district schools may become more efficient, we vote to prohibit country children from attending city schools.

From what we can learn the chances for Mr. C. Wm. Taylor for Jailer of Franklin county are about as flattering as any. Of course each candidate thinks his prospect the brightest.

Revs. E. A. W. Roberts and Tyler E. Uterback will each preach at Red Ridge church house to-morrow, the former at 11 o'clock a. m., and the latter at 3 o'clock p. m. All are invited to attend.

Next Saturday, September 12, will be the most important meeting of any yet held by the teachers of this county, as business, never before mentioned, except privately, will be presented for action at that time. Let us all be on hand at 10 o'clock sharp and help to move the ball. Trustees especially invited to be present.

Parents should be very careful in regard to the influence they set before their children and the company they allow them to keep. Not unfrequently it is the case that our ears are assailed by foul odors emanating from the lips of little boys, and all because of a lack of the proper care of fathers and mothers in this matter. If parents would be more careful about this matter, the money now expended for the erection of jail houses, penitentiaries and gallows, might be used in the rearing of structures for the propagation of education and religion in the north.

A day of final reckoning will surely come. Sympathy, when offered in season, is no doubt an excellent thing, but when too late is but mockery.

The Song Service at Taylorton chapel on Thursday night, was well on duty here. He says that he was an inoffensive partisan and that he "was born a Democrat." That makes no difference, sonny, you'll have to soon tumble to the music—"to the victors belong the spoils." We are waiting and watching for you!

Attention, Albert G. Bacon Post.

R. B. TAYLOR, D. W. LINDSEY, Adpts. Commander.

Proper Treatment for Coughs.

That the reader may fully understand what constitutes a good Cough and Lung Syrup, we will say that Tar and Wild Cherry is the basis of the best remedies yet discovered. These ingredients with several others equally as efficacious, enter largely into Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup, thus making it one of the most reliable now on the market.
